

Rebecca Storz Bio

Rebecca Storz is an Omaha muralist, ceramicist, and sculptor. She is a partner, with Richard Harrison, in A Midsommer's Mural company. She graduated from the University of Nebraska at Omaha with an art history degree in 2013. At UNO, Rebecca was the president of the Organization for the Advancement of the Arts, UNO's student art association. Rebecca interned at the Bemis Center for Contemporary Arts in 2012 and with muralist Dave Lowenstein in 2013 on the mural "Working Together Towards A People's Art" in Hastings, Nebraska. It was the last of 6 murals done for the MidAmerica Arts Alliance Mural Project. She serves on the board of the Community Built Association Conference, and through CBA assisted Caryl Yasko, a pioneer in the community mural movement, with a mural in downtown Davis, CA. Her mural design work includes lead artist on: the Nebraska Odyssey Mural, the 13th Street Mural, the Murdock Museum Mural in Murdock NE, and the Irish Community Mural. She has taught ceramics and currently produces custom tiles in her studio on a commission basis. Her work can be seen at amidsummersmural.com and southomahamuralproject.com.

Cabrini Project Artists' Bios

services in the community. In the past, he has painted murals for the Chicano Awareness Center and the Nebraska Arts Council. Additionally, he has won many awards for his art.

Richard Harrison has an MFA from North Carolina School for the Arts, and he has managed 12 murals in South Omaha receiving awards from mayors, governors, and the state legislature. Incorporating 58 paid artists and 650 volunteers over 7 years. He recently completed a 1% for art mural project for the Central Nebraska Veterans Home in Kearny. Richard's newest grandson, Calvin, has Carlentini roots. Calvin's father Chris Robiola grew up in Little Italy and Richard is excited to explore the background of his grandson and son in law. You can see the work of our collective energies at the collective artists site: southomahamuralproject.com. And you can see Richards individual work at amidsummersmural.com.

We are gathering a following of artists under the Facebook Page World Mural Project, who are also excited to join us on this adventure. If not in person, then by virtual conversations about how we will accomplish the project, since many of them are in Sicily.
